IT BEGAN WITH A BIG BLAST!

GLR Letter

Dear Wallace:

It was wonderful to talk to you on the phone! Made me realize how feeble and ill-informed most of the so-called "hard-core" is, just by contrast.

I can't stand still long enough to write a long and detailed letter, as I'd like to - I want to get some material off to you right away and some more info on what's up. So please forgive the lack of amenities and proper narratives of how all this happened. Suffice to say that we are finally beginning to DO what we have all so long talked about, mostly thanks to ONE man, --the ONE "Fat Cat", --as we used to call them, --who is putting his $$$$ where his mouth is. God bless him.

The enclosed "hate-mongering" will give you an idea of the calibre of material we are preparing to roast the Jews alive in the fire of truth, as it were. [REDACTED] is all-out on the stickers, which are the ultimate weapon against the Jew, because he can't see where he's getting hit from, --the point is he himself has been using to knock us all off. People who see in public say that there are such things as Jews have to be setting up to get a supply of these "communism is Jewish" stickers to put on their cars in the right places.

The big blast is all set for either Thursday or Saturday. If there is a law ordinance forbidding picketing, etc., on Sunday, we will picket on Monday, and will keep you informed. But we want to do it Sunday, if possible, because the boys are coming down from New York for work here, --no puts in the local citizens, --and we want to have Saturday to pass out thousands of hand-bills and posters to set the steam things up for the big blow itself. You'll have to find out if there is an ordinance in Atlanta against Sunday picketing, and, if there isn't, your boys, just as mine, will not be free, in all probability, on Saturday, and can use that whole day to distribute the "pamphlets" we will get down to you in quantity by Thursday or Friday.

There are three items for handbills: (1) An informative explanation of WHY we seem to be having trouble in the Middle East, coupled with an endorsement of the picketing and invitation to come and meet at the Jew's offices, (2) a documented, damning INFORMATION sheet to hand-out at the "ceremonies" to establish exactly what Israel has done and is doing, and, generally, to pierce off the citizenry at the traducers of our Country and traditions, etc., and, (3) Membership applications for The American National Committee to Free America from Jewish

Two "official" dates stand as the birthdate of the American Nazi Party: October, 1958, and March, 1959. The National Socialist White Worker's Party recognizes the former date as 1958 was the year in which George Lincoln Rockwell crossed his own personal Rubicon.

That July, twenty years ago, Rockwell had led the first openly anti-Jewish demonstration in the United States since 1941 in front of the White House.

Had he not been certain at the time of the significance of his action, then the Jews themselves were to remind him later that fall when the Atlanta, Georgia, synagogue was bombed and Rockwell only narrowly escaped the huge frame that had been carefully engineered for him and his few followers over the preceeding months.

The demonstration itself had been innocent enough. At the time, Rockwell was calling his group the Committee to Free America From Jewish Domination and they were using no uniforms of any kind and certainly no Swastikas. The cause for the protest that day was - believe it or not - the dangers of U.S. involvement in the Middle East on behalf of the Jews.

However, to the Jews themselves, this could not go ignored as it was the first sign of any active resistance to their control over the U.S. government since they had succeeded in silencing their opposition in 1941 through the monumentally stage-managed incident known as "Pearl Harbor".

A so-called "sneak attack" designed to silence a huge and well-financed American anti-Semitic movement and to "make the world safe for Communism" in the forties corresponds well to the dynamiting of a synagogue in an attempt to silence one man in 1958.

But Rockwell was a different kind of man than the rest. He would not be silenced. In his autobiography he outlined the half-dozen or so standard methods used by the Jews for silencing their opposition: Loss of financial security; Slander in the press; Physical terror; Murder, etc., with varying shades and degrees in between.

They tried them all out on Rockwell and none of them worked. Not even the famed "Last Resort": Death by Assassination was successful in his case.

Just as there are two dates accepted for the foundation of the A.N.P., there are two quotes from Rockwell wherein

Beattie—racist running for mayor

by Bruce Mohun

John Beattie is a self-proclaimed racist and a candidate for mayor of Toronto in the upcoming municipal elections.

Beattie wants to be respectable (right now he calls himself semi-respectable), he wants to shake the Nazi label he claims the media pinned on him back in the early '60s at a time when he was making use of the swastika as a scare tactic against communist organizations in Toronto.

He also distributed hate mail and spoke out against both racial mixing and the Jewish community.

Beattie's platform for mayor is based on racial purity and restriction of religious freedoms, though he does have other plans that do not involve race or religion. He wants to construct a national sports stadium, prohibit pornographic movies, limit salaries of city employees and teachers and expand mass transit.

Article 11 of his campaign newsletter asks for: "Prohibition of Hindu, Mohammedan, Sikh, or any non-Christian proselytizing, and the denial of permits to erect or establish places of assembly for such heathen worship."

Article 1 reads: "Housing priority to native Canadians—immigrants (of all colors) at the bottom of the list."

Beattie belongs to the British People's League and is editor of their right-wing newsletter, Northern Lights. He has recently achieved the minimum credits towards entrance to law school.

His living room is graced with a Union Jack, a picture of Queen Victoria (representing an historical period he has a great appreciation of) and a bust of John A. Macdonald. In the front hall of his house is a picture of Queen Elizabeth II. "Queen Elizabeth I was the first to stop race mixing," he says appreciatively.

"All through history, when the garbage starts to gather, to the point where we have to toss some of it out—and I'm not calling people garbage, I'm just saying it's a confusing situation . . . when you confuse too many tongues, too many religions, too many races, it's just too confusing for anyone to set any kind of standard to go on."

Beattie believes he may have triggered Metro's action against body-rub parlors.

"I was walking up Church Street with my wife," he says, "when some creep invites me in. I got a little bit angry and I did quite a bit of damage to that building.

"The day after I did that Paul Godfrey (Metro Chairman) comes out and says we've got to stop the body-rub shops; Mel Lastman says we've got to stop the body-rub shops.

"I've been personally told by a very senior person in Metro that my action put a lot of fear into the liberals."

The heading on Beattie's campaign newsletter says "Keep Toronto clean and prosperous . . ." For Beattie clean comes first.

Beattie feels there are two other reasons why he might do well in the coming elections. First, he says, people are voting against incumbent governments nationwide. Secondly, Jim Beattie won the World Series. (Jim Beattie pitched for the New York Yankees.)

"I think it's ironical," he says, "that I got all that publicity last month. A lot of wives are going to see Beattie on the list and the name's going to ring a bell."

The fight is on: Record 616 seek election in Metro

TORONTO STAR, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1978/A21

By David Miller Toronto Star

A record 616 civic candidates have filed nomination papers for the Nov. 13 municipal election in Metro, attracted in part by three close mayoralty races and many wide-open aldermanic battles.

With nominations closed last night, the City of Toronto leads the way with 192 candidates, including a record 12 for the $50,000-a-year job as mayor. Others are seeking council, school board and public utilities seats.

North York has 132 candidates and a bang-up board of control race with 10 candidates, including two former controllers. Scarborough is next with a record 95 nominations, including five for the mayoralty and nine for the four-member board of control.

York weighs in with a record 60 candidates and a three-way battle for mayor. The borough also has Metro's only board of control acclamations: Alan Tonks and Fergie Brown.

Mayor acclaimed

Etobicoke has 88 candidates this time around, and incumbent Mayor Dennis Flynn faces two challengers. Board of control has five candidates for four spots, with the remainder of the races aldermanic or for board of education.

Tiny East York has Metro's only acclaimed mayor, Alan Redway, who will begin a second two-year term. But the borough has 48 other candidates seeking election or re-election.

The city's many mayoralty nominations are a surprise because only three main candidates — Aldermen John Sewell, cluding former controller Ken Morrish, who took over when Paul Cosgrove resigned to run for the Liberals in the Oct. 16 federal by-election in York Scarborough.

Opposing Morrish are veteran Controller Gus Harris, Alderman Ron Watson, businessman Donald Lunny and community worker Lois James, who lost to Cosgrove in 1976.

The borough has nine candidates seeking four board of control seats, and the favorites are incumbents Brian Harrison, Joyce Trimmer, Frank Faubert and Alderman Carol Ruddell. Another is John Tsopelas, who gave up the federal Liberal nomination in Scarborough Centre to Maurice Strong, former chairman of PetroCanada.

In North York, incumbent Mayor Mel Lastman faces little challenge from two fringe candidates as he goes for his fourth term. He's opposed by Helen Obadia of the North American Labor Party and businessman Perry Dane.

But the borough has 11 people running for four board of control positions, including incumbents Barbara Greene, Esther Shiner, Bob Yuill and Ron Summers.

Back to try for controller again is Irving Paisley, who resigned from the job in 1974, and Alex McGivern, who lost the post in 1976 after holding it for five years.

Trying again

York Mayor Phil White is trying for his fifth term, challenged by veteran Controller Doug Saunders, a 14-year member of council and the borough's budget chief, and Alderman Gayle Christie, who has

METRO ELECTIONS

They may be eccentric but they want top job

By Alan Christie Toronto Star

What makes Andrejs Murnieks run? And why?

Murnieks is one of nine pretenders to the throne vacated by former Toronto mayor David Crombie — 20,000 leagues (and as many votes) under the three major candidates, aldermen Tony O'Donohue, John Sewell and David Smith.

In the 1970s, the fringe candidates — sometimes called "the crazies" — have shown up at every municipal election in the city, whether there's a real race, as in 1972 and this year, or no race, in 1974 and 1976.

Murnieks, 45, is running again this year because he got "so mad" that people did not listen to him two years ago. "My main concern is public washrooms for every subway station. People urinate and vomit on the floor. I've slipped myself a number of times."

His platform drew 961 votes in 1976, 111,000 fewer than the winner, Crombie.

Murnieks typifies the candidate who "has a platform that wouldn't get publicity any other way," says Toronto psychiatrist Dr. Jerry Cooper.

"Fringe candidates run the gamut from those people who may be mentally disturbed to those who simply have views they want to get across."

Murnieks is simply one of the latter, with personal views that shouldn't bother anybody.

Others have more global concerns, and filing nomination papers for mayor allows them to express them.

Here's a sample of some Toronto mayoral candidates and their views:

□ John Beattie, 36, former leader of the Canadian Nazi Party. His first priority is housing for native Canadians, with "immigrants of all colors at the bottom of the list."

□ Richard Sanders, 36, North American Labor Party, who wants to "educate the population on the crimes committed by the Guelph monarchy in Canada. Narcotics and ruinous speculation are the only benefits of the British system."

□ Zoltan Szoboszloi, 64, a "traffic summons consultant," whose slogan is "God 'Shave' The Queen." He insists "the only queens Canada has are bikini queens and Dairy Queens."

Book seller Joe Martin, also running for mayor, is the 45-year-old leader of the Canadian Just Society, which wants legalized marijuana, prostitution and gambling to create jobs.

Nazi chief wants to bring race 'fight' here

By PAUL INGALLS

Allen Vincent's ruddy face grew intense as he spoke, the swastika on his sleeve moving slowly with each punctuating breath.

"We're here to organize white people for their own survival purposes," he said.

With that the 46-year-old "national leader" of the National Socialist White Workers Party kicked off what he hinted may be an intensified effort to bring Sonoma County residents into the American Nazi movement.

Vincent, a San Francisco resident whose profession is leading and organizing for the NSWWP, suggested his brown shirts may hold a rally sometime next month in Santa Rosa's Old Courthouse Square.

But that wasn't the primary reason the Nazi leader was in Sonoma County this weekend.

Saturday, Vincent's main concern was a session at 7 p.m. tonight at the Community Baptist Church at which Herbert Aptheker, the noted scholar of black history, is to discuss "Should the Nazis and Ku Klux Klan Have Freedom of Speech?"

What the Nazis' response to that meeting will be is still undecided, Vincent said. The original plan had been to hold a counter rally in Old Courthouse Square today. But the group had not counted on the red tape at City Hall and were told by city officials that it would take a week to process the paperwork which must be done prior to issuing a permit.

A permitted rally, therefore, became impossible. But Vincent didn't rule out the possibility of some other action, perhaps including Nazis already active in Sonoma County.

THE SANTA ROSA STORY

It was through the action of Sonoma County Nazis that Vincent first became aware of the Aptheker speech.

According to Vincent, a cell of about 10 Sonoma County Nazis has been meeting for about a year. And while he admits the group is small, he says with satisfaction that it is "solid," without "infiltrators or provocateurs."

Furthermore, Vincent feels, Sonoma County is fertile recruiting ground for the Nazi movement, mainly because of the many "honest white working people" living here.

Vincent believes Sonoma County residents are watching an epidemic of crime against whites in the Bay Area and are ready to make sure it doesn't move north.

"This area is right on the verge of something like that itself," he said with conviction.

Vincent's particular opposition to the theories of Aptheker may stem in part from experiences he had with another member of the historian's family.

In 1964, Aptheker's daughter, Bettina, was one of the leaders of Berkeley's growing Free Speech Movement. It was at precisely that time that Vincent came under the spell of American Nazi Movement leader George Lincoln Rockwell and began organizing for the group.

Vincent said that before that time he "didn't really have a political viewpoint" but was looking for something which would give substance to his "instincts." That he found in Rockwell's Nazi movement, and when Rockwell was assassinated Vincent followed in the leader's footsteps.

major American Nazi parties, however, and there seems to be little love lost between the groups.

In addition to Vincent's National Socialist White Workers Party, there is the National Socialist White People's Party and the Nationalist Socialist Party of America, the latter of which recently made headlines with its plan to march through Skokie, Ill.

But Vincent feels his organization is the only legitimate American Nazi group, if for no other reason than his contention that the leadership of the other groups is tainted.

The head of the NSPA is a "half-Jew," according to Vincent, "and we don't want under any circumstances a half-Jew as a leader."

The leader of the NSWPP, Vincent contends, has in his lineage "Pakistani blood."

Vincent saves most of his rancor, however, for Jews, blacks and Mexicans, and Aptheker, as a Jewish scholar specializing in black history, comes in for his share.

Aptheker, Vincent says, is a "rabid anti-white fanatic" who has been "agitating against white people for years." He is a "leading Communist theoretician and spokesman," says the Nazi.

Vincent is as vehement in his general philosophy.

"The white race is in trouble today because they've allowed their affairs to be managed by Jews who really don't have their best interest at heart," he said.

What are the ultimate goals of the National Socialist White Workers Party?

"We want the North American continent to be a white people's land," he said. "This is the last area of the earth where the white man has a chance.

"Actually, we don't want to hurt blacks or Mexicans but we sure want an all-100-percent pure white neighborhood for our people to live in."

But something Vincent said when he left seems to belie this last statement. He commented on the security at The Press Democrat building:

"This is a good, secure building," he said. "This is the kind of building we'll need when the real race war starts."

Council blasts Nazis, u

The Santa Rosa City Council Tuesday condemned the American Nazi movement for "bigotry, intolerance and stupidity" and called on Santa Rosans to boycott a rally of the group set for Saturday in Old Courthouse Square.

The resolution condemning "extremism in general and the Nazi party in particular," prepared by Councilman Jack Healy, was approved 4-0, with Councilman Jerry Wilhelm absent.

Healy's resolution came four days before a planned rally of National Socialist White Workers Party, permitted by the city under Constitutional guarantees of freedom of speech.

Healy opined the right-wing group was "rightfully" granted permission to speak in Old Courthouse Square, but then presented his resolution condemning extremism of all kinds and specifically the Nazis.

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that the City Council of the City of Santa Rosa, while recognizing

Nazis get permit for rally

The City of Santa Rosa has granted the National Socialist White Workers Party a permit for a rally in Old Courthouse Square September 30.

City Manager Kenneth Blackman told The Press Democrat Friday the permit had been routinely processed and a letter had been forwarded to the Nazi group informing them their request to hold a recruitment rally between 2 and 5 p.m. had been granted.

City officials — including Mayor Donna Born — had earlier predicted the rally would be approved since to do otherwise would be to abridge the right wing group's Constitutional guarantee of freedom of speech.

A coalition of citizens opposed to the Nazi group last week asked the City Council to deny the permit but were informed the request would be processed like any other and likely granted. Mayor Born suggested the best response to the Nazi rally would be to ignore it.

Blackman said Friday the Nazi group would face the same restrictions as others holding rallies on city property. Those restrictions, he said, deal with volume of amplification, blocking sidewalks and streets, clean up after the event and similar requirements.

Blackman also told The Press Democrat two other groups, Flower of the Dragon and the Sonoma County Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression, had applied for permits to stage rallies at the same time. Their requests will be denied, however, because of city regulations limiting the number and location of simultaneous assemblies, Blackman said.

City Recreation and Parks Director Charles Hoefer told The Press Democrat Nazi leader Allen Vincent said he expects to bring about 10 of his brown shirts to the rally and draw between 80 and 100 listeners.

Judaism classes begin Monday

The Sonoma County Academy of Judaism will open for classes Monday and Tuesday in Petaluma and Santa Rosa.

The academy will offer courses in Hebrew and Jewish history. Classes are open to the public.

Basic Hebrew will be offered Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Petaluma Jewish Center, 740 Western Ave., followed by a history of Jewish civilization at 8:30 p.m. Rabbi David Kopstein will teach both classes.

Courses in Hebrew and Jewish mysticism will be offered Tuesday at the Temple Beth Ami, 4676 Mayette St., Santa Rosa, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Tuition is $25 for each 12-week course. For more information call 762-0340.

Opposes rally boycott

Constitutional obligations to provide for the free expression of ideas, also goes on record as deploring the actions of extremists of all kinds," the resolution read. "We specifically condemn the philosophy and actions of the Nazi party and the horrors it represents. We also speak out strongly against the idea that violent confrontation solves problems."

The council formally called on Santa Rosans to boycott the Nazi rally, indicating it would be the "most effective way of handling the Nazi assembly."

As justification for its conclusions the council resolution noted that "bigotry, intolerance and stupidity are not in themselves illegal."

"The history of the Nazi party wherever it has existed clearly shows all of the traits of bigotry, intolerance and stupidity that result in the suppression of human rights," the resolution said.

Brando Plays U.S. Nazi in ABC Sequel to 'Roots'

Marlon Brando will make a brief appearance as late American Nazi leader George Lincoln Rockwell in "Roots: The Next Generations," ABC's 14-hour sequel to the Alex Haley family history saga due to begin Feb. 18. "As far as I know, this is Marlon's TV dramatic debut," said "Roots" producer Stan Margulies.

Brando on Monday filmed a scene re-creating a portion of a Playboy interview Haley conducted with Rockwell when the "Roots" author was a free-lance writer. The scene is expected to run 8-10 minutes.

"Marlon initiated this," said Margulies. "He called Alex several months ago and said he wanted to be in 'Roots.' We finally found something he wanted to do and something we wanted him to do."

Nazis granted permit to rally in Santa Rosa

SANTA ROSA (UPI) — Nazi and anti-Nazi groups have obtained permits to rally in downtown Santa Rosa Saturday.

The city council granted a permit to the National Socialist White Workers Party headed by Alan Vincent but urged citizens to boycott it.

Permits were also issued to the Sonoma County People for Human Justice and another to the American Coalition Against Facism, two groups opposed to the Nazi rally.

Backs demonstration

EDITOR: Thanks to our elected Santa Rosa officials our multi-national community will be faced with the spectacle of swastikas in our city plaza.

The public appearance of neo-Nazis in Santa Rosa is part of a general racist offensive taking place in our country and around the world. Almost 40 years ago, Hitler's Nazis were responsible for more than 50 million deaths and the destruction of trillions of dollars of property. Today, fascist ideas and practices are alive and ruling in countries like Chile, Iran, and South Africa.

Recently, a group of concerned residents justly demanded the Santa Rosa City Council stop the unwelcome racists' use of our city plaza. The council, contrary to the wish of the citizens, granted the Nazis a permit. As a result of this decision, a large group of residents, representing a broad segment of the community, met to mobilize a protest against the Nazis.

The Communist Party of Sonoma County believes and advocates that a united peoples' action is necessary to halt the fascist encroachment in our community.

The newly-formed coalition is organizing a peoples' demonstration against racism and the Nazi presence in our community for 1:30 p.m. Saturday, in Juilliard Park in Santa Rosa.

The Communist Party of Sonoma County fully supports this demonstration and we hope this unity will enhance the development of future struggles against racism and unemployment, for affirmative action, detente and world peace.

Let Nazis speak to empty Square

THE AMERICAN Nazi Party has obtained a permit from the City of Santa Rosa to hold a rally at Old Courthouse Square on Saturday.

City officials had no choice other than to grant the permit for the rally. The Nazis' request for the rally permit falls under the free speech section of the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

BUT JUST as the Nazis have their right to free speech, the rest of us also have the right not to listen.

That is the action we would suggest on Saturday. Let the Nazis spew their racist hatred to an empty Courthouse Square. What the Nazis want is attention. They would like to see a violent reaction to their rally. Hecklers in the audience would be most welcome to the Nazis. And any attempt to silence them by violent means would make the rally a success in the eyes of the Nazis.

The American Nazi Party is not welcome in Santa Rosa, and the best way for residents of the city to indicate that is to turn our backs on the racists.

WE IMPORE Santa Rosans and other citizens of Sonoma County to allow the Nazis to conduct their rally in a vacuum. They can then take their racial hatreds out of town with them, hopefully never to return.

City struggles to assess

By SUSAN SWARTZ

Joe Rapoport from the Jewish Cultural Club expressed ambivalence over Saturday's attack on nine Nazis in Old Courthouse Square.

"As far as my sentiments are concerned, I rejoice.

"These guys are preaching violence and they got a taste of it.

"But as far as understanding the minds that produced the violence, I can't accept it. Violence of any kind is wrong and doesn't accomplish anything."

While Rapoport and his organization joined with others at a counter rally at Juilliard Park, an angry crowd attacked nine members of the American Nazi Party when they arrived for a scheduled white power rally.

After a five-minute melee, squelched by the arrival of a riot control tactical squad, the Nazis were placed under protective arrest and driven off in a police van.

Eight protesters, most of them coming from outside Sonoma County, were arrested. Seven injured police officers were taken to hospitals for treatment, one with a broken shoulder.

City manager Ken Blackman, who watched as the rally turned into a riot from the second floor of a nearby office building, congratulated police officers for their professionalism.

"I was there for the entire thing and I think they did an outstanding job. I don't think they could be criticized for over-reacting or under-reacting."

However, Allen Vincent, Nazi organizer from San Francisco, had a different opinion. He called Press Democrat this morning to say he was seeing his attorney, who he refused to identify, to consider suing the city of Santa Rosa.

He charges that the city should have not allowed members of "Jewish lead Communist" Progressive Labor Party to parade through the square prior to the arrival of the group, which held a city permit rally.

Nazi rally violence

"It is against the city's own rules to allow two groups to have a rally at the same time and at the same place."

About 45 minutes before the Nazis drove up in two cars, witnesses reported some 25 members of the PLP marched onto the square, chanting "Fight for Socialism. Death to the Nazis."

On Saturday, Santa Rosa Police Chief Sal Rosano said plain clothes officers had identified members of the PLP as "the single most identifiable group directing what should be done when the Nazis arrived."

Vincent said local police had "no control of the mob" and accused Rosano of "bungling" protection for the Nazis "and planning to bungle it."

Still, despite the lack of hospitality, he repeated his vow made on Saturday to return to Santa Rosa. "There were white people at the square wanting to hear what we had to say."

Vincent said members of his group, who were all helmeted, escaped serious injury, but they all, like himself, received bruises.

Blackman said if the group applies for another permit to hold a rally, "Our legal advice has been that you cannot deny a permit based on something which you think might happen."

But, he added, the group could be asked to post a bond, based on Saturday's experience, to cover the costs to the city.

Three of the protesters arrested Saturday remained in jail this morning, to be arraigned today. The other five were released on bail and will appear in court in two weeks.

Still incarcerated are Roland Angle, 36, Alameda, teacher, whose bail was set at $15,000, on charges of inciting to riot, resisting arrest, assaulting an officer; Victor Coffield, 37, Berkeley, who listed his occupation as driver, $3,000 bail, assaulting an officer; William Huntinton, 31, San Francisco, hospital worker, $15,000, assault with a deadly weapon.

he sizes up his personal mission in life. The most common has it that he knew he would not die before he had made the victory of National Socialism a certainty. The other, more obscure but more from Rockwell the realist, told us that he would establish a Movement that would survive on its own before he could be killed.

Of course, he has since been proven right.

Nowadays it brings me to stark reality when I see such things as shingles hanging outside local businesses which read: "Established 1958". Twenty years is a long time in human terms.

Twenty years is a generation. The generation just passed since 1958 has brought more change - all of it bad - for this country and the world than any other comparable period of time in history.

What has the Party been able to achieve or to account for over the past twenty years?

In hard, tangible terms, very little. Real revolution is the hardest of businesses and the greater the stakes, the greater the risks, then the fewer the subsidies.

The twenty-year uphill climb we now look back on has been one of an almost imperceptibly slight upward grade. If ever there has been a long march, then this has surely been it.

It may be commented that all of the trials of the past may have been avoided as only now does there seem to be a general atmosphere favorable to a popularly supported revolution.

The awful expenses and sacrifices of the past might amount only to diversions we felt compelled to perform in order to get our minds off the awesome and irreversible slide of our former lives and culture into the present-day hell and oblivion. Also, at the same time, costly and thankless efforts to prove to ourselves and to the world that we at least were still men.

In truth, what really has happened in the past twenty years has been our own people catching up with us.

Today all of our people are radically alienated from the Big Brother System and are thoroughly disenchanted with the status quo of economic slavery that they find themselves trapped in.

It's almost impossible to find anyone who isn't violently and emotionally anti-black.

Average people with no previous contact at all with the so-called "Lunatic Fringe" as we once may have classified tell me of things they have discovered for themselves that I first learned of long ago by reading in disreputable and yellowing Right Wing "extremist" tracts that had been passed hand-to-hand.

Most of them speak with an astoundingly calm resignation to the inevitability of violent struggle to rectify the impossible situation. They speak of revolution, civil war and the necessity for men who are ready to die for their beliefs in the face of the Big Brother System. And they are no longer afraid.

What is called for now is no longer "education" of the White masses of people nor is it a further "ripening" of the situation. LEADERSHIP is called for as never before and the SPARK of courage and sacrifice that will commence the

THE CALIFORNIA REICH

This 1976 documentary about neo-Nazism in America received an Academy Award nomination.

Producers Walter Parkes and Keith Critchlow spent 11 months in California filming members of the National Socialist White People's Party, which then numbered some 2000 members nationwide. There is no narration and, according to host Cleve Roberts, "no conscious editorializing on the part of the filmmakers." This approach, says Roberts, results "in an eloquent testament to the ever-present threat of racism, ignorance and hatred."

Some viewers, however, may find the movie offensive. There are sequences that tend to be inflammatory, and others that are simply ugly: a demonstration at a university erupts into violence; young children raise the Sieg Heil salute and hurl racial epithets; and at a Christmas celebration, Santa wears a swastika.

Several PBS stations have refused to broadcast the film. Editorial comment was added after they protested. (60 min.)

BREZHNEV'S GAFFE

Kremlinologists, always on the alert for fluctuations in Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev's health, spotted a mental lapse by the 71-year-old leader last week. Brezhnev was in Baku to present the Caspian-coast oil with the Order of Lenin. At the end of his national speech, Brezhnev announced that he had signed a decree, at which point the audience but TV viewers picked up on his gaffe. Between Brezhnev and to him, the read

FUSS OVER A NAZI FILM

Despite strong prodding from the Public Broadcasting Service, many public-TV stations are refusing to schedule an Oct. 22 documentary called "California Reich," chronicling the activities of American Nazis in California. William J. McCarter, president of Chicago's WTTW, calls it "almost a recruitment film" and says he knows of 20 to 30 stations in addition to his own that won't run it. PBS president Lawrence K. Grossman concedes that a "substantial number" of the 270 public-TV stations in the U.S. have balked at showing the film, but Grossman endorses it as "a strong and effective documentary that shines a light in dark corners."

A YEAR'S WORTH OF MINUTES

"Into our hands have fallen copies of the minutes of the Cabinet's meetings from March 14, 1977, to March 13, 1978." So says The Nation magazine, which in this week's issue prints excerpts from the leaked minutes and observes that the portrait they paint of the Administration "falls considerably short of inept." Among the excerpts: "The NSC staff will inform a meeting on world hunger... the Pre reminded Cabinet members that this issue is a humanitarian project this year of the entertainment industry." "The President said he is pleased Cabinet members appeared on Sunday television shows." In the boardroom atmosphere of meetings, a Nation article says, "knowing the President systematically avoided, and significant in off before it threatens to upset. # WOSU-TV Refuses To Air Documentary About Nazis

WOSU-TV (Channel 34) has chosen not to air what may be the most controversial program of the year — an Academy Award-nominated documentary on the Nazi party in California.

Channel 34 is one of as many as 30 of PBS' 279 stations that have refused to carry The California Reich on grounds that it promotes Nazism. Cleveland's WVIZ-TV has turned thumbs down, too.

WHAT MAKES THE hour-long effort controversial is its form. The approach is cinema verité. It has no narration and no rebuttal to Nazi rhetoric except for opening and closing remarks by newsman Cleve Roberts.

The California Reich is set for 8 p.m. Sunday, a time Channel 34 devotes to the simulcasting of a symphony show with WOSU-FM (90 on the dial).

Bud Wilkinson
Television

Channel 34 Program Manager Mike Mottler explained the show is part of a series of documentaries that are regularly taped for broadcast at a later time.

HOWEVER, HE SAID,

"It (The California Reich) will not see the light of day on our station."

William J. McCarter, president of Chicago's WTTW-TV, has described The California Reich as "almost a recruitment film."

Nazis are seen teaching their children to applaud Hitler and hate others. These scenes were shown recently on CBS' 60 Minutes program.

Mottler detailed his opposition to the film by reading copies of letters sent to PBS President Larry Grossman by general managers of other network stations.

"THIS PROGRAM affronts audiences of all races and religious persuasions by providing media exposure to an organization whose avowed and practiced political philosophy includes the degradation of man and genocide," Mottler quoted Sheldon Siegel, general manager of WLVT-TV in Bethlehem, Pa., as writing.

"The offering of this program to the system under the guise of 'exposing the Nazis' merely serves to nurture latent bigotry and hate and to propagandize their philosophy."

Frederick Breitenfeld, executive director of the Maryland Center for Public Broadcasting, wrote, "including (the show) in the PBS schedule produces too many who lose viewers, stations, PBS, white people, black people and Jewish people."

"THE ONLY 'WINNERS' are a few Nazis and the First Amendment, which in my opinion is not in need of a fresh victory just now."

To generate support for The California Reich, PBS sent telegrams to its stations on Sept. 16 urging each outlet to air the program.

Barry Chase, PBS director of current affair programming, has been quoted as saying, "I think it is important to let people know those groups exist in California. There is a value in that, having people know there are people who regard Adolph Hitler as a great savior."

The documentary was produced by Keith Critchlow and Walter Parkes and was shown in theaters. The Academy Award nomination came in 1976.

Newsman Roberts notes in the opening segment the program is a "disturbing reality."

'Anti-Nazi' Raid On a Theater

New York

Terror revisited a theater director whose family died in concentration camps as ten marauders ripped apart a theater showing what they said was a "pro-Nazi" film.

Jack Garfein, artistic director of the Harold Clurman Theater, and about 50 people in the audience stood by horrified as the intruders destroyed a movie projector and stage sets Saturday night in the theater on Manhattan's West Side. One person was slightly injured.

"If I'd wanted to, I couldn't give them a better demonstration of fascism," said Garfein, whose daughter, actress Blanche Baker, won an Emmy for her performance in the NBC miniseries "Holocaust."

"It reminded me of when I was a kid and the Nazis broke in and took the rings off my mother's fingers. Then they pushed my father against the wall and broke the furniture because my father had dared stand up against them," said Garfein, 48.

Garfein said that his mother and 8-year-old sister died in the gas chambers of Auschwitz and that his father died in the camp at Ordruf. He survived camps at Auschwitz and Bergen-Belsen, and was freed in 1944 at age 14, his weight having dropped to 48 pounds.

That was 34 years ago, but it all came back to Garfein when the marauders rushed into the theater during the showing of "California Reich," a documentary which some believe favorably portrays Nazi followers in California. The film was nominated for an Academy Award two years ago.

Theater workers said the intruders shoved an usher and a woman in the audience and began busting sets and tearing down the screen. They grabbed the stage manager by the throat and choked him until he opened the projection booth so they could destroy the projector and make off with the film.

An anonymous caller to the Associated Press said that the incident was the work of a group called the Revolutionary Socialist League and Committee Against Racism.

THE CALIFORNIA REICH

A Film by Walter Parkes and Keith Critchlow

This Thursday, which is designated as Thanksgiving Day on American calendars, a picture about San Francisco is opening at the Centro Cedar Cinema. As we enter the holidays with visions of sugar plumes and credit cards in our heads, we have much to be thankful for. We are a free people. We can choose what movies we'll see and which ones we'll pass up.

For the average movie-goer, the latter will probably be the case with "The California Reich." The opposite should be true, or a few Thanksgivings from now you may not have the same opportunity of choice.

The folks that the film is about might just live around the corner and up your block. They're family people with kids and average jobs and cozy homes. Every once in awhile they put on funny uniforms and arm bands and go demonstrating. You see, these patriotic Americans are members of the "National Socialist White People's Party" or, as they prefer to be called, Nazis.

There are about 2000 of them in America, men, women and children. And when mommy and daddy ask the kids, "Who don't we like?" even the tiniest of the toddlers happily shout, "Jews and Niggers!" This documentary is full of unsettling things like that.

"But," you say, "there are only 2000 of them." Right. And, as the end of the picture dramatically points out, in 1923 the official German government evaluation of Adolph Hitler and his 1,000 followers was that they were harmless and of the "comic opera" variety of agitator.

The power of the mere display of the swastika is explained by a Nazi spokesman. The very sight of it reduces the most rational individual to a raging animal who must destroy the image of the "crooked-cross." That was brought home to me at the screening.

There is a scene taken of Tracy, Calif., "stormtroopers" loading into a truck to join their comrades in San Francisco. They are the motliest, most misshapen, misbegotten misfits you can imagine. When given a "column right" command they very nearly trample each other. They are hilarious — ludicrous and hilarious.

I dared laugh at them and my colleagues of the press turned and glared at me in the darkness. The Nazis are right; they've got us running scared, in the movie house. Outside, ignore them and they'll go away.

If there's one thing we should have learned about the Nazi mentality in World War II and in all those Hollywood propaganda epics, it's that the one thing they can't tolerate is ridicule. Punch them out and they love it, but laugh at them and their ridiculous para-militarism and they are at a loss for a counter - weapon. Humor is not in their arsenal.

"The California Reich" was nominated for an Academy Award as Best Documentary. It didn't win. But the young men (24 and 30) who made the picture are not losers. They have done an illuminating and brave piece of work. If we ignore it, we may well be the ultimate losers. If you care what is just below the surface of your society, go and see it.

Hackers Seize Jet, Block Release Of Hess

The name and the image of Rudolf Hess keep coming up regularly each year due to his unique spot in world history. Every now and then, his name is brought up in the news irregularly due to some protest or demonstration to gain his release from Spandau prison in Berlin. Then too, every time the man is ill (he is in his eighties) and has to be treated or removed to a hospital, that also makes world headlines.

So without question Rudolf Hess is the world's most famous prisoner. For present purposes however, that is a pretty dubious claim to fame.

Surprise could come to no one if Hess should die before these words about him can get into print.

For that very reason, this story about Rudolf Hess is not going to be another exercise of futile inveighing such as has been all others written previously by others favorable to Hess. This is the first time I have chosen to write about Hess though it is a story I have wanted to write for several years.

The hijacking incident reported here also is what prompted me to do it now. Finally, I thought to myself, someone was doing something for Hess other than pitiously moaning and bewailing his situation and the injustice surrounding it. Now was my time to print something that corresponded to the man rather than to any abstract principles.

Hess, as many know, was Deputy Führer of Nazi Germany directly under Hitler. Hess finds himself in a unique place in history because he was a unique person, even among his fellow Nazi leaders.

Hess and Hitler were total contemporaries: About the same age; Intensely pro-German and anti-Communist; And equally mystical in their conviction of the special mission in this world of the Aryan Race of man.

Hess first met Hitler during the First World War while they were serving in the same regiment on the Western Front. Hitler was an Austrian and a non-commissioned officer. Hess was a German and an officer. It is reported that Hitler once told Hess he should avoid the dangerous flying missions he was undertaking as far bigger things were in store for him.

After the War, the two men found their ways independently to Munich where Hitler remained in the German Army and Hess joined an early forerunner of the Nazi Party: The Thule Society. During the temporary takeover of Bavaria by Communists, Hess' life was in danger as a counter-revolutionary while Hitler's was equally in danger as an Army operative left behind enemy lines.

After the liberation of Munich from Red rule by the Freikorps shortly thereafter, the two men were again introduced by Dietrich Eckert, an early Nazi philosopher who died in 1923.

With the Nazi Party formally founded by 1920 and becoming a growing force in Bavaria by the time of general national collapse in Germany by 1923, the two men found themselves together during the Munich Putsch of November 9th.

The march, intended to seize power in the State of Bavaria, and with Hitler and Hess in the front rank, was able to push through an Army barricade but was halted by a fusillade by a detachment of police. Sixteen members of the Party were killed. Hitler was wounded and later arrested. Hess turned himself into authorities.

Both men were sentenced to terms in Landsberg Prison and it was while they were there that Hitler and Hess collaborated on the writing of "Mein Kampf", with Hitler providing the story and the thoughts and Hess doing the actual writing and shaping of the chapters, etc.

They both were released in 1924 when the Party was re-organized and they were together all the way through to the assumption of national power in Germany in 1933 and, again, all the way through until May of 1941 where Hess' current story began.

Rudolf Hess, in his capacity as Deputy Führer, was privy to all the most intimate and top eschelon political and military plans of the Third Reich and, beyond that, to the most private thoughts of Adolf Hitler himself.

Hess was aware of Hitler's determination to attempt to destroy Communism by invading the Soviet Union in the summer of 1941. Hess was also aware of Hitler's determination not to attempt an invasion of England.

Above all else, Hess desired to prevent further war between England and Germany and he wanted to see the military destruction of Communism succeed.

Many secrets about World War Two have only recently come to light. For example, the secret of the Pearl Harbor "back door to war" trick designed by Franklin Roosevelt to get the United States into war to pull this country out of its economic depression and, primarily, to "make the world safe for Communism".

Though it has been brought to light, the secret involving Hess has been carefully obscured for reasons that would run contrary to the "Big Brother System" being established in the world.

Hess was chosen by Hitler to be his personal messenger to the British Government that Germany did not want war with England and that all Germany asked was a free hand in dealing with Communism in the East. Hess flew alone to England in May of 1941 with Hitler's full knowledge and consent.

Hess had told Hitler before the flight that, should his mission fail, Hitler could always claim that Hess had "lost his mind".

Hess flew to England and crash landed his plane nearly losing his life. He was arrested by the British and interrogated. It is reported that Churchill came to see Hess in his cell disguised as a doctor.

Why such dramatics and ultra-secrecy between heads of state? What had been only suspected of the British Government by Hitler was now found out in its total degree.

While anti-Communism was strong in Parliament and while no one seemed to want to prosecute the war any further, there could be no stopping it. Why? Because of England's debt from the First World War that was still owed to the international Jewish banking houses and, more specifically, because Churchill himself had years ago been bought and paid for by the Jews.

As soon as he realized he had failed, Hess began acting the part of a crazy man and claiming total amnesia. And, in Germany, Hitler gave the official story that Hess had, indeed, "lost his mind".

The totally helpless plight of England as a nation was demonstrated to an even more ghastly degree when, in 1945, while Communism was devouring Europe and Germany was being defeated, the British - including Churchill - proposed to the Americans that the still standing and still strong German Army be now rearmed and sent against the Communists aided and backed by the Western Allies in a plan that had been formulated by Heinrich Himmler, Hitler's SS Chief.

Dwight Eisenhower coldly informed the British that their nation was now totally bankrupt due to the war and that they were in debt to the United States to the point of complete dependency. If they did anything other than follow a set policy of total destruction of Germany and the surrender of most of Europe to Communism, they would be allowed to fall into total collapse.

After the War, Churchill is well-known for having made the comment - too late - that, "We killed the wrong pig."

And, after the War, Hess was brought from prison in England and put on trial in Nuremburg as having been a "War Criminal" after having been himself a prisoner of war throughout most of the Second World War. Hess was convicted on the charge of having "Conspired Against Peace".

Hess was sentenced to life imprisonment and locked up in Spandau Prison where he has remained to this day.

Other ranking "War Criminals", also sentenced originally to serve the rest of their lives, have long since been released. Hess is the sole prisoner left at Spandau, a place designed to hold six hundred men. Why?

All of the Western governments have stated their willingness to release Hess. As the job of "guarding" this elderly man is shared jointly by four nations: England, France, the U.S., and Russia; each taking its turn for one month, it would be simple for them to just let Hess go during their turn as his jailer. They have not and will not do this.

The reason is because of a statement Hess made in 1934: That he would not betray Hitler ever, at any time, "come what may". All the rest, to secure their personal freedom, did renounce Hitler. Hess never has and never will. Therefore, as far as the Western "democracies" are concerned, he can die in jail.

As far as the Russians are concerned, had Hess been successful in 1941, there would today in all probability, be no Russia. Instead, only a series of smaller colonies dominated and controlled by Germany. Not only will they not allow Hess to leave Spandau alive, they have also sworn never to allow his ashes leave the prison.

But in the nearly forty years that Hess has been imprisoned, the world picture has changed dramatically. This is not one more sob story for Hess on the part of helpless fighters for justice or humanity.

We have no reason to pity Hess. For to do so belittles the man and the full understanding he has always had for his place in world history. We need not worry about Hess. We only should honor him.

Year by year, his lot in prison has improved. He is at last seeing his family, etc. He is not forgotten and he has been fully vindicated. He most likely will never see freedom because the rotten world order that is on its way out still maintains superficial control.

But what memories the man has! His past contains more meaning than a thousand futures in terms of average human existence. And this he knows also.

The world may have made a mistake but Hess has not compounded it by betraying the man who still has the future of the world in his hands.

And he lives still in the same world with us. Hard to believe.

He is there reading about us and even watching us on television. Think about it.

One of the greatest men who ever lived is still alive today: Imprisoned by a rotten world. Hess is the last of the great men of the old school who stands in super-human magnitude. The Greatest Man Alive is a prisoner.

Ultimate testimony about the state of the world today.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 15 (AP)—A high-up "fat cat" backer of anti-Semitic terrorism figured today in police investigation of the $100,000 dynamiting of the Jewish temple here.

This financial angel of a fanatic hate-mongering mob was mentioned in one of two letters seized as police raided the homes of five persons held for questioning about the dynamiting, which occurred early Sunday.

Detective Capt. R. E. Little described the other paper as a pencilled draft of a letter addressed to an Atlanta Jewish leader before the temple blast.

It said: "You will soon witness a terrifying experience."

Details Withheld

The detective did not say precisely where either letter was seized, whether the one to the Jewish leader was ever mailed, or what the leader's name is.

The other letter, Capt. Little said, was mailed from Arlington, Va., just before five men were arrested here in July for an anti-Jewish demonstration in front of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Building.

"Thanks to one man, one 'fat cat' financier, we can now do the things we've been planning to do," it said.

The letter did not identify the "fat cat" but Capt. Little said the name of a man who promised to public affairs began being immediately in the bombing investigation.

The letter referred to the "big healthy backer as having put his dollars where his mouth is—God bless him." It also mentioned a "big blast" and added:

"The Jews from New York will be coming down. There's no guts in the local citizens."

Five Others Are Sought

The officer said they are seeking five men other than the five already held. They said an unidentified, 35th-year-old resident of Detroit, Mich., was subjected to a "beat down" when he began to speak while in a jail on another count.

Capt. Little said a "very adverse situation" existed at the start of the questioning of these men, which is beginning to wear off.

"We are getting down to fear business now," he reported.

The detective captain listed the fifth man arrested for questioning as Wallace H. Allen. He said Mr. Allen, 35, also held, helped plot the bombing of the Temple at a meeting in May.

successful climax of the revolution.

Twenty years of simply knowing the score or having personally resisted the evil that has overtaken us is no badge of honor in the naked reality that we face.

Being morally in the right is worthless unless it is backed by ACTION.

As National Socialist Revolutionary, we must be up to it individually to find a way to make a real contribution to what takes place ahead and because of our past affiliation we will thereby insure the well-deserved glory of our fallen Commander Rockwell.

Few have covered every foot of the twenty-year-long march but those with Rockwell's words and deeds in their hearts will share in it nonetheless.

Let the past twenty years serve as our promise that the time has come now that we and our people have finally converged.

And with the strength in us as we follow Commander Vincent to lead our people, it will be remembered that the revolution that saved the White Race began in 1958!

Domination, etc. --The latter is still not solidified, because, so far, we can't find anyone with guts, intelligence, and F.R.E. enough to open up and run the office. But after the national demonstrations, --I think we will have that licked too.

I know we can count on you to run a damned good show in Atlanta, Wallace, --I only wish I was able to count on the same kind of BUSINESS-LIKE operation everywhere, --which is the thing that will terrify the Kims more than any one other thing.
